

Vt. 630

UNION CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Plymouth Notch, Vt.

Originally built with box pews in 1840, the interior was remodeled in 1890 by a local craftsman in Carpenter Gothic style. The Coolidge pew is marked with a flag. The two doors have thresholds of iron cast at Tyson Furnace, an early Plymouth industry.

Photography by Frank L. Forward

Pub. by Forward's Color Productions, Inc., Manchester, Vermont 05254

POST CARD

144519